1 During our research period, Atlixco’s municipal archives were re-catalogued and documents were re-numbered. Except where noted, the records here follow the older system and, for the sake of future research, correspond with the published index (Guadalupe Curi et. al. 1984). Bibliographic records followed by an asterisk [*] were not catalogued in the original index and so follow the new system. Interested researchers will find that the two systems of notation are cross-indexed in the archives.
